We keep the full range of Bolle products available for our customers because this brand is always in demand.

- ❖ Bolle prescription sunglasses come in many designs and frame colors. Customers have many options when it comes to the appearance of their sunglasses.
- ❖ Bolle is serving the tactical, everyday, industrial, safety, and sports eyewear markets, building specialized products for every segment.
- ❖ Bolle produces high quality products and sells them on very competitive prices through authorized dealers.

Bolle and its products are much more than that. They are where most other brands want to be.

This is what every Bolle prescription sunglasses review will say about the brand and their remarkable products.

Bolle's Variety in Rx Product Lines

Bolle has developed a reputation as a reliable manufacturer of eyewear in all major market segments.

To serve all these market segments, Bolle has to understand the needs of each category of customer. Only through thorough market research can a brand produce good quality products for multiple market segments.

Another thing that adds to this level of product quality is the research Bolle does on new processes and materials. Bolle Rx labs conduct tests and experiments to find new and better ways to give their customers more value for their money.

Over a history that spans over 50 years of their presence in the optical solutions industry, Bolle has built specialized product lines for many market segments.

Following is some description of how Bolle has categorized their product lines.

- ❖ PURPOSE: There is a long-term need for Rx sunglasses in all consumer segments. Based on these major purposes, Bolle prescription sunglasses are divided into the following:

Performance	The products introduced in the performance category are sturdy and durable. They look sleek and stylish but have sturdy frames and structures. They come in both glasses and goggles form and are recommended for motorcycling, racing, and other sports.
Industry	Specially named Bolle-Safety, the products in this category are specialized to suit industrial environments where the eyes and face are at risk. A quick Bolle prescription sunglasses review will show you Bolle has dedicated products for many industries.
Outdoor	The products in this line are built to look good and endure impact and flex in outdoor settings. The lenses on a Bolle frame out of this category are built to last.
Lifestyle	The chic design and vivid appearance of these products make them well suited to the urban lifestyle and the modern workplace during the day. With added style, these products carry the same quality of lenses and vision as any other Bolle product line.

- ❖ ACTIVITIES: In terms of activities, Bolle has built a number of kinds of glasses and goggles to fit your need of adventure.
  - CYCLING: Bolle prescription cycling glasses are made for the performance rider. Whether you compete or ride for fun or fitness, your eyes will be safe with Bolle.
